FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c., &c.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but several beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average seven candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

P. RAVENHILL, Major-General, R.E.,
Chairman of Committee.
